LB 452, 850A, 870, 1230, 1251, 1252

co-introducer.

SENATOR CARSTEN: No objections? So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Schmit would like to expedite LB 1230.

SENATOR CARSTEN: No objections? So ordered.

CLERK: And Senator Barrett would like to bracket LB 452 until April 15.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator DeCamp, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, old John thought he heard, but he knows Senator Barrett would never try that on a sleepy old Thursday afternoon when everybody is ready to go for Easter. He thought he heard ask unanimous consent to bracket LB 452, which just happens to be the interstate banking bill. That isn't what I heard, is it?

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Barrett, would you like to respond to that question.

SENATOR BARRETT: Mr. President, it is Easter, John, it is Easter. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Is there any objection to withdrawing? So ordered. Anything further?

CLERK: Mr. President, yes. Study resolutions, Mr. President. I have amendments from Senator Hannibal to LB 1251, LB 1252, to LB 870, LB 850A, and to LB 1251. That is all that I have, Mr. President. (See pages 1808-10 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: Okay. Senator Marsh, would you like to adjourn us until next Tuesday morning at 9:00 a.m.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Chairman, I most certainly would. I'd like to wish all of us a very joyous holiday. I think we're ready for a vacation. I move we return on April 1 with no hijinks, at nine o'clock in the morning.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Just a minute, we may have some more to read in here.
